Book Club

Friday, January 8, 2016
11 am

The Book Club meets on the second Friday of every month at 11 a.m.

In January, the book club will be discussing Disgrace by J. M. Coetzee

At fifty-two, Professor David Lurie is divorced, filled with desire, but lacking in passion. When an affair with a student leaves him jobless, shunned by his friends, and ridiculed by his ex-wife, he retreats to his daughter Lucy's smallholding. David's visit becomes an extended stay as he attempts to find meaning in his one remaining relationship. Instead, an incident of unimaginable terror and violence forces father and daughter to confront their Crafty Tuesdays will take place on Tuesdays from 3:30 - 4:30.

Build and Battle will take place on Wednesdays. Build a Lego creation, or challenge a friend to a game!

strained relationship- and the equally complicated racial complexities of the new South Africa. A novel that not only works its spell but makes it impossible to lay it aside once we've finished reading it...Coetzee's sentences are coiled springs, and the energy they release would take other writers pages to summon. (synopsis from Amazon.com).

Stop by the library to borrow a copy of the book and join us for a lively discussion at the next book club meeting!
